Dr. Edna Saffy
[REDACTED]

Dear Edna:

"Victory is sweet." These three little words have been shouted by young and old, rich and poor, statesmen and team captains!

As I sit here on the eve of my inaugural and reflect on the events of the last several months, I am fully aware that these words should read "Victory is Ours."

Tomorrow, would never be a reality, had it not been for your faith, encouragement and tenacious efforts to make this dream come true.

Your belief and continuous support of our mayoral candidacy, flowed from one corner of our city to the other, resulting in an overwhelming vote of confidence by the people of Jacksonville.

Tomorrow also, the real work will commence. We must remain united and begin our efforts to move Jacksonville to greater heights. We all want our city to be the model of the South - a pride to ourselves and a legacy for our children.

With your conscientious and continuous help and input, we can fulfill the dream that will enable us to lead Jacksonville into a future of growth, prosperity and economic soundness.

I will never forget the friendship and the confidence you have bestowed upon me, and I thank you again from the bottom of my heart.

With all best wishes; and warmest personal regards always, I remain

Sincerely yours,

TOMMY HAZOURI
